

ANOKA COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE SHERIFF JAMES STUART

FRIDAY UPDATE: 02.09.18-02.16.18

The computer scam is alive and well; a victim in Ham Lake was taken for $5,000. Here is the report:

On 02/12/2018 at 1055 hours, I was dispatch a phone call harassment report. I contacted the complainant by phone. He told me that he fell for a scam over his computer. The victim stated that he got a message that his computer was infected, so he called the number and spoke to a unknown person claiming he was with Revwiretech Inc. The unknown person stated it will cost him $239.99 to fix his computer. The victim paid that amount and allowed them remote access to his computer. The victim stated that the screen was blacked out while this happened. The victim stated that somehow when paying them, $23,999 was transferred from the callers account to his saving account.

The unknown person claiming to be with Revwiretech Inc. stated that he needed to pay back the $23,999. The victim then said that he got $5,000 in target cards to pay back the amount; he then realized what was going on and stopped. The victim told me that he knows he's out the $5,000 he sent in target cards, but he still concerned because Revwiretech is still trying to contact him.

I then went over procedures with the victim on how to protect his finances. The victim advised that he already closed his bank accounts and opened new ones. The victim also said that he disconnected is computer from the Internet.
