

ANOKA COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE SHERIFF JAMES STUART

FRIDAY UPDATE: 03.03.17-03.10.17

We know this subject is a little uncomfortable but I think it is important to share this report in order to show that you don't have to be a "teen" to be put into a bad situation by snapping a compromising picture of yourself and sending it to someone. This is not the first report we have taken regarding this type of incident; unfortunately, it happens more than you may suspect.

ORIGINAL OFFICER NARRATIVE

Dispatched for a fraud report. I arrived and spoke to the victim regarding fraud or a possible blackmail situation. The victim said he was surfing the dating site plentyoffish.com for single girls. He came across a girl "Akiesha" who was interested in him and they started chatting online through Facebook messenger. She sent him a link which brought him to a different site and they exchanged a couple photos. "Akiesha" sent a compromising photo and coaxed the victim to sending one of himself.

A short time later, the victim received a phone call from a male. The male told the victim that he would post his compromising picture on his Facebook page for all his friends to see if the victim did not send iTunes gift cards. The victim went to the store and bought several iTunes gift cards. He went back home and sent the male the numbers on the back of the iTunes gift cards and photos of the back of the cards. A total of $250.00 worth of gift cards were sent.

You get the gest.....it happens.
