

ANOKA COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE SHERIFF JAMES STUART

FRIDAY UPDATE: 06.08.18

In law enforcement, we have seen the increase in attempts and deaths by suicide - and all the heartbreak it brings. The CDC says suicide rates have gone up in almost every state since 1999. Suicide is one of the top causes of death in the US - behind things like heart disease, cancer, and diabetes. In 2016 alone, nearly 45,000 people died by suicide. The study says that suicide rates have spiked by more than 30% in half of US states. And that the majority of those who died by suicide didn't have a diagnosed mental health condition, but many suffered from things like relationship, financial, or physical health problems, as well as substance abuse issues.

As a society, we need to do something. While researching, I came across a blog that provided "5 Things We Can All Do To Help Stop Suicide" which was pretty good – you can check it out at https://www.huffingtonpost.com/lisa-firestone/five-things-we-can-all-do-to-help-stop-suicide\_b\_12031588.html.

If you or someone you know may be considering suicide, contact the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline at 1-800-273-8255 (En Español: 1-888-628-9454; Deaf and Hard of Hearing: 1-800-799-4889) or the Crisis Text Line by texting 741741.
