

ANOKA COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE SHERIFF JAMES STUART

FRIDAY UPDATE: 06.22.18

Two things – one struck me as funny, and one you need to be aware of.

While reading the reports from this week – I came across this one and it made me laugh. Here is the deputy's report:

On 06/21/2018 I was dispatched to an assist call where a juvenile got his hand stuck in handcuffs.

When I arrived, I spoke with the juvenile who stated that he was messing with handcuffs he was given and got them stuck on his wrists. He stated that he had lost the key. I attempted to unlock the cuffs with my key but it would not turn due to it being too big. Mom stated that we could cut them off. Deputy Barrett and I cut the handcuffs off his wrist using bolt cutters.

Next is something we want you to be aware of.

An Andover resident received a call from a man claiming to be an Inspector with the City of Andover and he wanted to schedule an appointment for a house inspection. The resident thought it odd, hung-up and called the city who advised her that they were not conducting any type of inspections.

If you receive a call like this and aren't expecting an inspection - call the city first and verify.
