There was an incident in Blaine that happened this week that we wanted to make you aware of. This gentleman responded exactly how he should have and potentially avoided a very bad situation.

On 07/27/17 at 1630 hours, an elderly male reported that a male posing as a Direct TV employee knocked on his door and stated he needed to access the residence to inspect his Direct TV Genie. The unknown male insisted that he check if the DVR is a Direct TV Genie 1 or Direct TV Genie 2. The complainant closed the door on the male and contacted Direct TV. Direct TV did not have any workers in the area, nor do they send someone without appointments. Male described as Late 20's- late 30's, Native or Hispanic decent, dark colored hair and facial hair, wearing a tan jacket, hat and ID badge with a Direct TV insignia.
