

ANOKA COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE SHERIFF JAMES STUART

FRIDAY UPDATE: 10.20.17-10.27.17

Below is a report taken this week in Ham Lake – just another reason not to do drugs:

On 10/22/2017 at approximately 0022 hrs, I Deputy Daniel Dewey #307 received a phone call from Unity Hospital Security regarding a juvenile male that arrived with a gunshot wound to the left foot.

Fridley officers went to Unity to speak with the person. He stated that he and his friend/witness went to an unknown field in Ham Lake to smoke marijuana and meet up with friends. While they were at the field, two white males showed up. One male was wearing a black hoodie and black track pants. The second male was wearing an orange hoodie. The male wearing the black hoodie pressed a handgun to his chest and demanded that he empty his pockets. The male described the gun as a Ruger 22. The male pushed the gun away from his chest. When doing so, he was shot in the left foot. At that time, the suspects fled the scene. The male stated that he did not know the identity of the males or what they were driving.
